

RE RESOURCE: Jewish responses to Shoah

The holocaust is evidence that there is no God. He would not have let it happen.

Anne Frank: "I believe people are truly good at heart"

It should be the 614th commandment that Jews never forget the Shoah

Maybe it was a punishment or reminder from God: we need to be better

What doesn't destroy us makes us stronger

We are mere humans. How are we to understand God's bigger plan?

To forget is to forgive

We must never let it happen again

If there is a God and He created the world and the people, then how could He let this happen?
